Olympic Sends Cherbourg Passengers Ashore in Thick Fog

The Olympic, which sailed from New York last Saturday for Cherbourg and Southampton and was due in Cher and Southampton and was due in Cher-bourg Roads at 7 o'clock last evening, ran into a thick bank of "pea soup" fog twenty miles out, making further progress shoreward hazardous. She reported her position by wireless and tenders found her after some trouble. It was decided to put the passengers for Cherbourg on board the smaller craft, thus obviating the necessity of the Olympic entering the French port. The transfer was effected to the accompaniment of a long ground swell, but there was no wind and little diffi-

York, was among those landed in the tenders. He is proceeding from here to Paris to investigate police methods. RUMOR LENINE IS DEAD
